

Portable Game Night • Grouped Reference Digest

Simple Dice and Push-Your-Luck

Fast dice fillers that teach quickly and use almost no table space.

Pig

Roll one die to build a turn score; bank anytime; roll 1 and lose unbanked turn points.

Beat That

Roll 2-4 dice and arrange them into the largest possible number.

Cho-Han

Call Cho/even or Han/odd before two dice are revealed.

Threes / Thirty

Roll 5-6 dice up to three times; threes count as 0; lowest score wins.

Going to Boston

Roll 3 dice, keep highest; roll 2, keep highest; roll 1; high total wins.

Tenzi

Each player races to get all 10 dice showing the same chosen number.

Twenty-One Dice

Roll 2 dice, then stop or roll again; closest to 21 without busting wins.

Bluffing Dice and Dice Rankings

Good for groups that like reading faces more than reading rulebooks.

Liar's Dice

Bid quantity/face across hidden dice; call liar to reveal; 1s are wild in this house version.

Mia

Two dice read high-first; 21/Mia beats doubles, doubles beat normal rolls.

Mexico

21 is highest; doubles rank 66 to 11; other rolls read high die first.

Cee-lo

4-5-6 best, 1-2-3 worst, triples rank high, pair plus odd die scores the point.

Poker Dice

Five kind, four kind, full house, straight, three kind, two pair, pair, high die.

Bar Dice

Roll up to three times; score by poker-style dice hand rankings.

Tokens, Pots and Betting Mats

Use candy, coins, chips, or harmless markers; no real-money value needed.

Aces in the Pot

Start with 3 tokens; 1s go to pot, 6s pass left; last player with tokens wins.

Help Your Neighbor

Players have numbers and tokens; rolled matching numbers remove tokens.

Chuck-a-Luck

Bet on 1-6; roll 3 dice; payout depends on how many dice match.

In-Between

Bet whether the third card falls strictly between two face-up cards.

Left Center Right

Roll up to 3 dice: 1 left, 2 right, 3 center, 4-6 keep.

Craps Pass Line

Come-out 7/11 wins, 2/3/12 loses; point numbers must repeat before 7.

Sic Bo

Bet small/big, odd/even, exact totals, triples, or specific numbers.

Portable Game Night • Grouped Reference Digest

Fast Party Card Games

Best when you want quick rounds, laughter, and low setup time.

Crazy Eights

Match rank or suit; 8s are wild and choose the next suit; first out wins.

Spoons

Pass cards until someone makes four of a kind; once one spoon is grabbed, all may grab.

Slapjack

Flip cards to center; first flat-hand slap on a jack wins the pile.

BS / Cheat

Announce required ranks face down; callers challenge truthfulness; loser takes pile.

Shithead

Play equal/higher or pick up; special-card rules should be agreed before play.

Mao

Only explain basic play; hidden rules create penalties and chaos.

Trick-Taking and Hand Management

For groups that want more structure than party games, but still portable.

Euchre

Trump-taking teams game; makers score for taking 3 or more tricks; defenders score on euchre.

Spades

Bid tricks with a partner; make bid for points, miss bid for penalties.

Knockout Whist

Take at least one trick each hand or get knocked out / lose a token.

Durak

Attack/defend with trump; last player with cards is the fool.

Hearts

Avoid hearts and queen of spades; lowest score wins; shoot the moon optional.

Oh Hell

Bid exact tricks each hand; exact bid scores bonus; missed bid scores 0.

President

Shedding game with ranks; first out becomes President next hand.

Solitaire Setup Digest

Use these as setup reminders; full move details stay on the site pages.

Klondike

7 columns, 1-7 cards; build alternating-color tableau; foundations ace to king.

Pyramid

Remove exposed pairs totaling 13; kings remove alone; clear the pyramid.

Golf

7 columns of 5; move exposed cards one rank above/below the waste.

Spider

Two decks, 10 columns; build same-suit king-to-ace sequences to remove.

FreeCell

All cards face up in 8 columns; use 4 free cells; foundations ace to king.

Clock

13 piles of 4; move revealed cards to rank piles; fourth king ends the game.

Canfield

13-card reserve, 4 tableau piles, foundations start at dealt rank and wrap.

Accordion

Move piles left by rank/suit matches; compress deck into fewer piles.

Portable Game Night • Grouped Reference Digest

Two-Player and Table Card Games

Good alternates when only two people want to play.

Speed

Both play simultaneously one rank up/down onto center piles; refill to 5 cards.

Kings in the Corner

Shared solitaire: descending alternating colors; only kings start corner piles.

Indian Poker

One forehead card each; bet based on others cards; high card wins.

Chase the Ace

Keep or swap one card; kings block swaps; lowest card loses a life.

Spit

Build personal tableau, spit center cards, play up/down fast, slap smaller pile.

Thirty-One

Draw/discard or knock; get close to 31 in one suit; lowest loses a life.

Poker Hands

Use as ranking reference for casual token poker.

Reaction, Signals and Oddballs

A catch-all page for games with special table behavior.

Kemps

Partners use a secret signal for four of a kind; opponents can call Counter-Kemps.

Egyptian Rat Screw

Face-card challenges plus legal slaps like doubles and sandwiches.

Ship, Captain, Crew

Lock 6, then 5, then 4; remaining two dice are cargo.

Ninety-Nine

Keep running total at/below 99; special card effects shift the total.

Poker / Ranking reminders

Agree tie-breaks, token limits, and house variants before play.

Safety note

Use flat-hand slaps, small tokens, water/skips for drinking variants, and no pressure.

Suggested Paper-Saver Print Plan

- 1) Start with the Digest Game Night kit for the smallest useful binder set.
- 2) Print extra compact score sheets only for the games you expect to play often.
- 3) Keep full-page PDFs available for low-vision players, teaching tables, or dense score sheets.
- 4) Use the site pages for full rules; this digest is meant as a table reminder.